"I'm in the Beacon!" – There's a Hashtag for That

Use #ImInTheBeacon to let the world know

Tom Hilton, Beacon Volunteer

One of the Beacon's most important jobs is bringing to our readers stories and photos of all the people who are part of our extended community, from long-timers to new residents, summer residents, former residents, and more.

It's really exciting when you are mentioned or see your photo in your hometown newspaper … and on its website at AndoverBeacon.com … and on its Facebook page at Facebook.com/AndoverBeacon. But wouldn't it be great to share the excitement on your social media accounts?

When you see this icon, it's your reminder to snap a selfie and post it using #ImInTheBeacon.

Well, there's a hashtag for that! When you (or a committee or organization you work with) appear in the Beacon, take a selfie of yourself holding that page and share the selfie on your social media account using #ImInThe*Beacon*. It's a great way to "see and be seen" by many others in our extended community.

It's Easy

If you've never done it before, posting a selfie using a hashtag is easy. Step one is to take the selfie, of course, holding the relevant page of the Beacon.

Then, on Facebook for example, create a new post by clicking "What's on your mind?" A box pops up, and you can type a few words to go along with the selfie. Be sure to include the magic hashtag: #ImInThe*Beacon*.

At the bottom of your post, where it says "Add to Your Post," click the green icon of a photo and select the selfie you just took. You're done!

As the Beacon's volunteer social media manager, I hope you'll join in and get Andover's little section of the online world buzzing about all the great community stories and photos in the Beacon. Thanks!

School Matters!

The Beacon needs volunteers to help gather school news, especially news of our Andover students at MVHS! If you can help, please call 603 735-6099.
