Blackwater Wilmot Farmers' Market & Craft Grange Fair Starts Its Fourth Season

At the June 9 meeting we had 11 members and four visitors. The Grange donated to the Andover Recreation Committee and to the Masons in place of rent.

Ella Phelps and George Peterson are each on the sick list. We hope they get well soon.

Master Willis Nowell showed slides that he had taken of New England wildflowers.

The next meeting of the Blackwater Grange will be on July 14 at 7:30 PM in the Masonic Hall on Cilleyville Road.

On Saturday, July 2, the Wilmot Farmers' Market and Craft Fair opens its fourth season on the green at the Town Offices in Wilmot Flat, just off Route 11.

From The Market's Web Site

"Visit us and experience the friendly, welcoming hospitality of our vendors at the Wilmot Farmers' Market and Craft Fair. Our open-air market is filled with sights, sounds, and tastes sure to please the entire family.

"While you are here, check out the great selection of locally-grown fresh produce we have to offer, plus a mouth-watering array of delicious, quality meats and poultry, fresh baked goods, honey, homemade jams, jellies, preserves, salsas, and specialty foods.

"Sit awhile and partake in a delicious breakfast or lunch prepared just for you on the grill. Enjoy the talents of local musicians performing live on the bandstand. We invite you to browse the wonderful array of one-of-a-kind, fun and functional arts and crafts displayed by talented local New Hampshire artisans, including hand-spun wools and woolen wearables, candles, soaps, wood crafts, photos, pottery, hand-turned items, fabric art, and much more.

"There will be special events for the 2005 season, including Kids Finger-printing Day, sponsored by the Wilmot Police Department, and more. Check our Web site at WilmotFarmersMarket.com for updated information.

"Come and enjoy the season every Saturday, 9 AM to Noon, rain or shine, July 2 through October 1, 2005."

ONE TESTIMONIAL...

"...You have made the transition from "home" to "home" a pleasant and productive experience for my mother. The atmosphere of care and the kindness shown is above and beyond the norm..."

Quality Care for our Elderly is available for affordable, realistic rates at Peabody Home

A not-for-profit elder care association.

We have been in business for over 60 years. We offer three levels of care and our residents may transfer back and forth between levels and never leave the caregivers they have come to know and trust.

Family may rest easy knowing that Peabody Home has a nurse on duty, in the building, 24/7, to monitor our residents and that our residents will be provided with the care needed for their health requirements!
