

New Listing – Pleasant Lake!

Slope n' Shore - Large family home with formal living and dining, fireplace, family room, private setting, and a walk to the beach.
New London - $675,000

New Price – Andover Village!

Charming three bedroom, one bath home with formal living room with fireplace, dining room, country kitchen, and detached garage.
Andover - PRICE REDUCED!
$212,000

Angeli & Associates

REAL ESTATE

41 Main Street
New London NH 03257

603-526-2955

www.lakesunapee.net
angeli@tds.net

This month's History Mystery was supplied by Frances Huntoon. Front (l-r): A, B, C, D. Back (l-r): Joe Huntoon (Frances' husband), F, Harold Huntoon (Joe's brother), H. Can you supply any of the names we're missing?

A History Mystery

This month's History Mystery is yet another photo that Suzy Norris of the Andover Historical Society borrowed from Frances Huntoon and her daughter, Betty Huntoon Duff. Frances is the holder of the Boston Post Cane as Andover's oldest citizen.

It's a photo of a railroad crew (above). Can you tell us where it was taken, or when, or the missing names?

Send your thoughts or reminiscences to the Beacon, and let's see if we can piece together the story of this month's History Mystery.

Last Month's History Mystery

We hit the jackpot with last month's History Mystery photo (below). It's a photo of the Proctor Academy housekeeping staff from the early- to mid-1960s standing by the Parsonage on North Street.

There are still some missing names, but many fewer thanks to Melissa Cheney, granddaughter of Ruby Chamberlin; William Clapper, David Currier, and Bessie Currier Benson, sons and daughter of Arlene Currier; Lynda Underhill, Proctor Housekeeping department for 27 years; Howard Wilson, grandson of Freida Wilson; and Stuart Lenk, AHS '58 and son of Sylvia McDonald.

Do you have a photo or other artifact of Andover's past that has some mystery about it? Please contact the Beacon so we can share the mystery with our readers...and maybe solve it!

Only five names missing now! Front (l-r): Ruby Chamberlin, Matilda Swett, C, D, Lu Charles, Freida Wilson, G, Grace George. Back (l-r): Frances Huntoon, Sylvia McDonald, Jane Bellanger (maybe), Linda Champney, Hazel Streeter, N, Louise MacDonald, Audrey Stevens (maybe), Q, Arlene Currier.

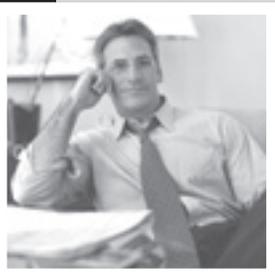

Franklin Historical Society Meeting

Leigh A. Webb, Franklin Historical Society president and owner of Historicity.biz, a Web site that sells historic documents, autographs, ephemera and collectibles, will speak on Unraveling the Mystery of Historical Documents with examples of how to use Internet search engines and other sources to flesh out the stories behind intriguing documents.

The meeting will be Thursday, May 4, at 7 PM in the Franklin Public Library at 310 Central Street in Franklin (next to the City Hall/Opera House) in the upstairs assembly room. There is ample parking behind the adjacent City Hall/Opera House and an elevator to use from the rear entrance to the upstairs area.

There is no admission charge, and light refreshments will be served. All are welcome.

My business needed working capital.

Franklin Savings had the answer.

Business has been good lately. I had some big orders, but I needed extra cash to buy raw materials. The business bankers at Franklin Savings Bank put together a loan package that really met my needs. And I got the money I needed fast, since they don't have to answer to some faraway headquarters. That's the kind of service I expect from my bank, and that's why I bank at Franklin Savings.

Answers. That's exactly what you'll find at Franklin Savings Bank.

- Commercial Lending professionals to serve all your business borrowing needs
- Full range of cash management products and services
- Retirement Planning and Employee Benefit Services
- Bank 24 hours a day, with 1-Bank24 Free Online Banking and Bill Pay

Contact Debbie Tessier for loan solutions at (603) 934-8367 tessier@fsbnh.com

FRANKLIN SAVINGS BANK
Come to us for answers

800-FSB-4445 (IN NH) • (603) 934-4445 • FSBNH.COM

MEMBER FDIC FRANKLIN ■ BRISTOL ■ BOSCAWEN ■ TILTON ■ LACONIA ■ NEW HAMPTON