

OBITUARIES

SALLY ANNE GOVE CATERINE, 80, retired teacher, died Monday, January 26, 2009, in Newport following a lengthy illness.

Sally was born in Newton, Massachusetts. She graduated from Bates College in 1950 and received her master's in education from Framingham State College in 1973. She and her husband moved to Wilmot Flat in 1975. Sally taught at Proctor Academy in Andover for the next 21 years, the third generation of teachers at Proctor in her family.

In lieu of flowers, memorial donations may be made to the Learning Skills Program Endowment, Proctor Academy Development Office, 204 Main Street, Andover 03216.

ROBERT G. COMRIE JR., 51, of Boscawen, formerly of Merrimack and Andover, died Wednesday, January 28, 2009, at Dartmouth Hitchcock Medical Center in Lebanon as a result of a heart attack.

He was born June 4, 1957, in Concord. He was raised in the Chelmsford, Massachusetts area prior to moving to New Hampshire. He will be most lovingly remembered for his finest accomplishment, his four children. Bob was at his best when with his children, and it was where he most wanted to be.

Among his surviving family is his daughter, Molly Comrie, of Andover; and her mother, Suzanne Comrie.

In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to the Robert G. Comrie Jr. Memorial Fund at the TD Banknorth branch of your choice.

HAZEL M. (MCDONALD) STREETER, 87, of Route 114, died Sunday, February 8, 2009, at her home in North Sutton.

She was born in Parsonsfield, Maine, the daughter of William H. and Georgia M. (Sanborn) McDonald.

Hazel lived in Andover for many years before moving to Sutton in 1960. She worked in the laundry department at Proctor Academy for 53 years, retiring as manager in the spring of 2004. She was a dedicated member of the First Free Will Baptist Church in North Sutton, serving as deacon and working on many church committees throughout the years.

Hazel was a loving and generous person. She loved her family very much. She will be remembered for her special acts of kindness and the happiness that she brought to everyone who had the pleasure of knowing her.

In lieu of flowers, memorial donations may be made to The First Free Will Baptist Church, PO Box 51, North Sutton 03260.

GERALD ROBERTS, 87, of Chase Hill Road, died Tuesday, February 10, 2009 at Concord Regional Visiting Nurse Association's Hospice House in Concord. He was born in New Rochelle, New York, on June 19, 1921, the son of Horace and Helen (Stevens) Roberts II. He spent the past year at Merrimack County Nursing Home in Boscawen. Before that he lived with his niece and her family in East Andover for eight years and in Warner with his brother for many years.

Mr. Roberts loved spending time with his nieces and nephew and was a caretaker for them. Music and in particular, jazz, were his passion, and many will remember him for his love of life and laughter.

Members of his family surviving include his sister-in-law, Rita Decillis-Baron of Sarasota, Florida; a nephew and wife, Mark and Carol Roberts of Sebastian, Florida; two nieces and husbands, Sylvia and James Berry of Port Byron, New York, and Heather and Percy Hill of East Andover; grandnieces, grandnephews, great grandnieces, great great grandnieces, great grandnephews, and great great grandnephews.

A graveside service will be held in the Contoocook Cemetery later in the spring. In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions may be made to the Andover Rescue Squad, PO Box 93, East Andover 03231.

JACKIE LYNNE PEASE, 51, died February 12, 2009, at home.

She was born in North Carolina on April 16, 1957, the daughter of Richard and Evelyn (Downes) Fredette. Jackie was raised in Franklin, where she attended local schools. She was a graduate of Franklin High School.

Jackie loved her family, and it was the center of her attention.

Family members include two children, Kimberly Pease of Concord and Eric Pease of Franklin; three brothers, Richard Fredette of Webster, Bob Fredette of Henniker, and Gary Fredette of Andover; a sister, Patsy DiBartolo of Colchester, Connecticut, and nieces, nephews, and cousins.

ENGAGED Brandon Adams

Kenneth Risatti of Franklin and Susan Dukette of Boscawen announce the engagement of their daughter, Jessica, to Brandon Adams, son of Mike and Lisa Adams of East Andover.

Jessica graduated from Merrimack Valley High School and NHTI. She is a nurse at Merrimack County Nursing Home in Boscawen.

Brandon graduated from Merrimack Valley High School and earned an associate's degree in accounting from NHTI. He is pursuing a bachelor's degree at Southern New Hampshire University in Manchester.

No wedding date has been set.

Corinne Cline: Dean's List, Student Athlete Advisory Board At Hiram College

Corinne Cline of Andover was named to the Dean's List for the fall semester at Hiram College in Hiram, Ohio. Corinne, a freshman, is a history major and member of the Hiram Terriers softball team. She is a 2008 graduate of Proctor Academy.

Corinne was recently selected as Hiram College's representative to the NCAA Student Athlete Advisory Council (SAAC). The purpose of the SAAC is to provide a collective voice for Hiram's student-athlete body while assisting in communications between student-athletes and athletic administration, as well as the larger campus community.

SAAC members strive to be role models for their teammates and community by supporting and participating in cross-campus events and service projects. By encouraging further development of leadership skills and promoting the exchange of ideas among student-athletes of different sports, SAAC enhances the total student-athlete experience at Hiram College. Members of SAAC serve on the council for four years.
