

Births at Dartmouth-Hitchcock

Connor Ronald Koron was born on September 21 to Lauren and John Koron of Andover, and Sarah Juliana DelSignore was born on October 3 to Sharon Corr and Christopher DelSignore of Andover, both at the Dartmouth-Hitchcock Medical Center in Lebanon.

BU GRADUATES TWO

Press release

Boston University awarded academic degrees to 1,501 students in September 2012. Among them were two Andover residents: Gwenn A. Fairall, Master of Public Health in International Health; and Andrew D. Will, Master of Fine Arts-Theatre in Design.

OBITUARIES

LEE DANIEL MURRAY, of Chesnee, South Carolina, died on September 26, 2012 after a long, courageous battle with Chronic Obstructive Pulmonary Disease. Lee passed away peacefully at his home in Chesnee.

Lee was born in Boston and raised in Harrisville, New Hampshire. Lee held many different jobs during his life: diesel mechanic, truck driver, and Road Agent for the Town of New Boston, New Hampshire. He was a member of the Road Agents Association in New Hampshire. He moved to Andover in 2004, then moved to South Carolina in September of 2011.

Lee was one of two children born to the late Daniel and Doris Murray, the brother to the late Joyce Boyd, and the much-loved husband of Dianne L. Murray for over 30 years. Lee will be forever remembered by his loving step-daughter Pamela Anfuso and Salvatore Anfuso, her husband; and by step-son William Grigas and Cheryl Grigas, his wife. He also leaves behind two sons, Michael Robbins and Brian Murray. He will be dearly missed by his grandchildren, Christopher and Felicia Anfuso and Jonathan and Nicholas Grigas, along with countless other friends and family who were blessed to know him.

Lee loved listening to country music, riding his Harley Davidson with Dianne, and being with his family and making them laugh.

Lee touched so many people with his smile, beautiful eyes, and kindness, and maintained his wonderful sense of humor right up until the end.

A celebration of his life was held for his family and friends at his favorite restaurant, Bronco, in Inman, South Carolina. In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to the wonderful people that aided in his care at Agape Hospice, 1060 Boiling Springs Road, Suite 1, Spartanburg SC 29303.

WILLIAM THOMAS MAXFIELD JR., of Sacramento, California, died October 3, 2012 after a long period of failing health. He was born on August 26, 1942, the son of the late William Thomas Maxfield and the late Virginia (Arthur) Maxfield.

He held a degree in mathematics from Sacramento State University. Prior to his retirement in January 2007, he was a Research Program Specialist for the State of California Department of Health Services.

Among surviving family members is his sister, Marjorie Leber of Andover.

MILDRED H. OTTO, of Boscawen and formerly of Salisbury, died on October 22, 2012 at the age of 102. She was a resident at Merrimack County Nursing Home for the past six years.

Mildred was born in New York City on June 19, 1910. She lived for 10 years with her grandparents in Fitchburg, Mass., later moving to East Andover with her mom and stepfather, Allen and Mae (Miles) Delaney, where she spent her childhood and attended Franklin High School. She married Arvo Suojanen in 1933, and they had two children, Miles and Sylvia.

Mildred was president of the West Concord Junior Women's Club and president of the Ladies Auxiliary of the Moose Club during the '40s. In 1960 Mildred moved, with her second husband, John Simmons, to Lighthouse Point, Florida, where they resided for 36 years. She helped form the Ladies Auxiliary to

See Obituaries on page 45

Chadwick Funeral and Cremation Service

Have you heard the news?

We are pleased to announce that we have opened our own crematory. Sugar River Crematory is located at 42 Main Street in Newport on the property of Newton-Bartlett Funeral Home. If your choice is cremation, every step of the process can now be done locally.

Please give us a call at 526-6442 or 863-2113 if you would like to stop in and see the crematory and the funeral homes. We would like to show you the buildings so that you could see some of our improvements. We are proud that we are able to offer this service to you at our own facility.

Call Charlie or Marion Hafner at 526-6442, or e-mail us at Hafner@tds.net.

Charles and Marion (Chadwick) Hafner

526-6442 • www.ChadwickFuneralService.com • Hafner@tds.net

PEABODY HOME CHRISTMAS BAZAAR

Sat., December 1st, 9:00 a.m. - Noon

Gifts, Crafts, Jewelry, Toys, Food, Attic Treasures, Raffles, + more

Table Space to rent $15.00
Call Angela at 934-3718

(Peabody Home is a not-for-profit providing multi-level quality care for elders.)

LOCATION: Look for the colonial brick mansion in Downtown Franklin...Between the VFW & Unitarian Church and across from Cumberland Farms

Celebrating 70 Years of Excellence 1942-2012

We are proud to invite seniors and/or family members to join us for a Pie Social Friday, November 9th at 1:30

Don't be shy! We would love to welcome you to our home!

Please come... enjoy our social and join in the fun. (Peabody Home = Multi Level Quality Care for Elders)

24 Peabody Place - Franklin, NH
(Call 934-3718 for directions)

CLASS PRESIDENT Jesse Coffey

Andover's Jesse Coffey has been elected Class President of the Class of 2016 at Colby-Sawyer College.