

AE/MS put on a breakfast for its First Student bus team in honor of School Bus Safety Week. Front: Jen Braga, Marion Devir. Middle: Christine Mitchell, Jane Slayton, Lynn Calvino, Kim Patten, Alison Jones, Gail Parenteau. Back: Ed Becker.

The theme of Math Night this year at AE/MS was Wild About Math! All the faculty in attendance were wild animals of one sort or another, professing their love of math. In this picture, Deana Crucitti transforms herself into a cheetah. Photo: Gretchen Hildebrand

During Fire Prevention Day, Andover firefighters Jeff Miller and Andy Guptill provided eighth grade students an opportunity to extinguish a real fire. Shown here are firefighter Andy Guptill and eighth graders Betsy Abrahamson, Collin O'Donnell, Alex Crucitti, and Katelyn Barton.

Colton Howe found a giant leaf during the second grade's annual leaf hunt. The students wanted to find out what happens when no more chlorophyll reaches the leaves of our local trees. Photo: Gretchen Hildebrand

HOLIDAY WREATHS - 2013

Andover Elementary / Middle School PTO will be selling holiday wreaths. Profits will go toward decorating all the town buildings and K-8 field trips.

If you would like to order a wreath, please fill out the form below and return it to the school before the Thanksgiving break. Wreaths can be picked up at the school on December 7 between the hours of noon and 3 PM. Orders can also be picked up anytime during the school week of December 8.

All wreaths are double-faced with an outside diameter between 22 and 25 inches. Decorated wreaths have red bows, holly berries, and pinecones.

Wreaths can be paid for when ordering or when you pick up. Checks can be written to Andover Elementary / Middle School.

If you have any questions, please call Jane Slayton at 735-5400.

Students in a Proctor French class wrote children's stories recently. On October 17, they shared and translated their stories to fourth graders at Andover Elementary/Middle School. This provided Proctor junior Alicia Barry a chance to return to her alma mater and to speak to a class that includes her brother, Adam.
