

The AE/MS PTO's Popcorn Friday is a big production. Volunteers come to school on Friday mornings and pop, pack, and deliver popcorn to students. Older students often help, too. Students and staff members love Popcorn Fridays! Pictured: Keygan Sweeney, Camden Donovan, Savannah Drewry, Alexis Cate, and Suzanne Raymond. Photo and caption: Jane Slayton

October 17 marked the first outdoor assembly in AE/MS' new partially-built amphitheater. A concrete pad for a stage and electricity are in place, surrounded on three sides by a wonderful sloping lawn for seating.

The Andover Eagle is awarded to AE/MS staff members who go above and beyond the school's Eagle Code. Kindergarten student Chance Thibault and the rest of the kindergarten class chose to give the Eagle to Ms. Stacy Rowe. Ms. Rowe is always helpful, caring, and a good friend to the kindergarten students. Pictured above are Chance Thibault, Ernie the Eagle, and Sadie Duquette (Ernie's handler).

Below, Mr. Hubbard's third grade students shared some of what they have learned this fall. The students held poster boards and talked about Google Docs, critical thinking, editing (lots of it), cooperation, and paragraphs. Mr. Hubbard's class has also published their first newspaper, The Hubbard Herald. Captions: Jane Slayton

AE/MS School Counselor Lisa Lane and the six members of the AE/MS Recycling Club have energized the collection of recyclables at the school this fall. The club members have educated the students about what can be recycled, set up bins throughout the building, made friendly reminder announcements, and increased the number of times they collect bins from the classrooms. The efforts have been successful, and more trash is being collected and recycled. In the photo, club members Damien Fuller, Ethan Meyerhoefer, Liam Donovan, Gavin Elliott, Jarrett Benson, and Hawk McCord are sporting their new tee shirts. Photo and caption: Jane Slayton
