Don served as Building Inspector for the Town of Andover, was on the Zoning Board, and served as Selectman.

He was a member of many professional organizations, including the International Chiefs of Police Association. He was a member of the New Hampshire Farm Bureau, served on the Board of Granite State Credit Union, and was Santa Claus at the Gift of Lights at New Hampshire Motor Speedway.

He was one of the founders of the Nashua Police Athletic League (PAL), an organization which helps kids in the community through youth athletic programs. He was a member of the American Chunker Team, which holds the world record for pumpkin chunkin'. Don was fond of old cars, trucks, and antiques; loved to visit; and enjoyed bartering.

He is survived by his wife of 23 years, Karen "Fred" (Demers) Gross of Andover; two sons, Nicholas and his wife Caroline Gross of Sunapee, and Matthew and his fiancé Kimberly Mica of Croydon; two grandsons, Benjamin and Ryan; a sister, Donna Vilsmeier of Manchester; three brothers: Russell J. Gross of North Sutton, Richard J. Gross of Andover, and Raymond J. Gross of Colorado Springs, Colorado; and nieces, nephews, and cousins.

Friends called at the Chadwick Funeral Home at 235 Main Street in New London on Thursday, January 14, from 4 to 6 PM. A Funeral Mass was celebrated on Friday, January 15, at 11 AM at Our Lady of Fatima Church at 724 Main Street in New London.

Memorial contributions may be made to PAL, 52 Ash Street, Nashua NH 03060, or to St. Jude Children's Research Hospital, 510 St. Jude Place, Memphis TN 38105.

ROBERT N. BENTLEY, 56, passed quietly at his home in Andover after a brief illness. He was born on May 30, 1959 to Norman and Muriel Bentley of Newport.

Robert spent over 20 years with the Pizza Chef family of restaurants and, like other family members, enjoyed working for the Souliotis family. Bob enjoyed many activities, from playing his guitar to enjoying the great outdoors, especially if it included his antique Mustang, as he was also a car enthusiast.

If it was mechanical or electronic, Bob loved to tinker with it. He, like the rest of his family, was very proud of his Scottish heritage and was an annual visitor to the Highland Games. Bob also loved spending time with family and friends and was a devoted father and husband.

He was predeceased by his parents, and recently his brother, Scott Bentley.

Left behind to celebrate his life are his wife of 21 years, Melissa "Missy" and his children Emily, 22, and Sam, 20. He is also survived by his sisters, Debra Gonyea of Newport, Susan Hanson of Kellyville, New Hampshire, and Heather Bentley of Pembroke, as well as many nieces, nephews, grandnieces, grandnephews, a great-grandniece, cousins, aunts, and uncles.

Calling hours were held on Friday, January 15, from 5 to 7 PM at Newton-Bartlett Funeral Home, 42 Main Street, Newport. A graveside service will be held at a later date. In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to the Bentley Children Fund, c/o Lake Sunapee Bank, PO Box 274, Andover NH 03216.

BARBARA (CHASE) MOCK, 78, died on January 9, 2016 at the Concord Hospital. She was born in Concord to the late Irving and Mary (Shugrue) Chase in the summer of 1937 and grew up in the Penacook area and was a 1954 graduate of St. Johns High School in Concord.

Barbara worked for the State of New Hampshire Tax Commission Municipal Service Division for many years and was the Town Clerk in Webster for 25 years before her retirement in 2002. She was formerly of member of the Boutwell's woman's bowling league in Concord. She loved to do word puzzles and jigsaw puzzles and was one who always loved to hear or tell a good joke!

Barbara was predeceased by her husband, Robert Mock, in 2004 and a son, Robert Mock, in 2015.

She is survived by her son, William Mock and his wife, Suzanne, of Andover; her daughter, Kathleen Byrd and her husband, Anthony of Harrisburg, Ark.; two sisters and their husbands, Miriam Lorden and her husband, John of Webster and Patricia Brown and her husband, Bob of Concord; her grandchildren, Jessie Byrd Gilbreth, Amanda Byrd, Anthony Byrd, Elizabeth Brannigan-Mock, Jeremiah Mock, and Robert Mock; her great-grandchilddren, Jayvin and Kade; as well as many nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends; and two very close friends, Brenda Silver and Katie Cayer.

There will be no services at this time. A graveside funeral service will take place in the spring in Corser Hill Cemetery in Webster, where she will be buried with her husband Bob.

In lieu of flowers memorial contributions can be made to the American Heart Association, 2 Wall St #104, Manchester NH 03101, or to the charitable organization of one's own choice.

BARBARA JANE AUBE, 70, a resident of Andover for over 36 years, died on January 10, 2016 at the Dartmouth-Hitchcock Medical Center in Lebanon following a short illness.

Barbara was born in Chicago on October 24, 1945. Following high school she went on to business college for two years. She was presently employed with the New Hampshire Department of Environmental Services in Franklin as a secretary, working there for over 30 years until her recent illness.

ANDOVER FOOD PANTRY
Food and Necessities for People in Need sponsored by
 The Andover Lions • The Andover Beacon

We need your donations of non-perishable, staple foods and other necessities. (Please check those expiration dates!)

The food pantry is located downstairs at the Andover Town Hall and is open whenever the Town Hall is open.

It's self-service, no questions asked. Take what you need or drop off what you can.

If you know someone in need, tell them about the pantry. If they are not comfortable going to the pantry themselves, for whatever reason, let a Lion or Beacon volunteer know – WE DELIVER!
