

At a June 27 gathering in the Andover Barn at the Highland Lake Inn, gubernatorial candidate Mark Connolly (in necktie) told a local audience, "We must work together and build New Hampshire's future on the pillars of education, innovation, job creation, and safe communities." Connolly is one of three candidates for governor on the Democratic Party ticket. A longtime businessman and former Deputy Secretary of State, Connolly will face fellow Democrats Steve Marchand, former mayor of Portsmouth, and Colin Van Ostern, a member of the New Hampshire Executive Council, in the Tuesday, September 13 primary. Caption and photo: Larry Chase

Summer Sale at the Service Club Thrift Shop

Running through August

Press release

Stop by the Andover Service Club Thrift Shop for our Summer Sale! Through the month of August, all clothing items, except current consignments, will be 50% off. You will find a great selection of good summer clothing for the whole family at a reasonable price.

During the month of August, we will not accept any clothing for consignments, as we try to clean out and get ready for the cooler fall season.

Our hours are Tuesday through Thursday, 10 AM to 4 PM. On Saturdays during the month of August we will be closed, but we will have the shop open on Saturdays again starting in September from 10 AM to 2 PM.

The Andover Thrift Shop is staffed by volunteers from the Andover Service Club, and proceeds from the shop support projects and organizations in Andover and the wider community. So come and visit us!

Andover Energy Group Brings "Chasing Ice" Documentary to Town

Capturing years of melting ice in minutes

Press release

Chasing Ice, a widely acclaimed 2012 film capturing dramatic evidence of climate change, will be shown in the Andover Barn at the Highland Lake Inn in East Andover beginning at 7 PM on Monday, August 8. Sponsored by the Andover Energy Group, the showing is free and open to the public. Attendees are invited to bring their own portable chairs to ensure adequate seating for all.

The 75-minute film follows a team of environmental photographers as they battle technical problems, camera malfunctions, and health issues above the Arctic Circle in order to capture, via time-lapse photography, the impact of global warming on the polar ice cap. Winner of over 30 awards around the world, the film "compresses years into seconds and captures ancient mountains of ice in motion as they disappear at a breathtaking rate," according to a review.

The Highland Lake Inn is located at the corner of Maple Street and Tucker Mountain Road in East Andover. The Andover Energy Group is a voluntary organization dedicated to helping local property owners learn more about alternative energy sources and energy efficiency measures. It has helped to encourage about 30 alternative energy installations (solar, geothermal) in Andover in its five years of existence.

Sponsors for the evening are Pine Hill Yoga and Kayak Country Paddlesports of Wilmot, whose contributions will help support renovation of the Highland Lake Grange Hall in East Andover, which houses Coffeehouse events for the remaining 10 months of the year. That venue is owned by the Andover Congregational Church.

Coming up: On Friday, September 16, back in the Highland Lake Grange Hall and beginning at 7 PM, enjoy a performance by the Buskers, a Lakes-Region trio of "folk impurists with a smart, distinct voice and a kitchen-sink repertoire of influences and instruments from jug band to jazz to roots rock." For more information, visit TheBuskers.com.

As in earlier Grange Hall concerts, the September program will also feature up to a dozen open-microphone performers, whose contributions have ranged from the spoken word to a cappella, show-business, jazz, folk, bluegrass, and country-and-western tunes.

Doors to the Grange Hall will open at 6 PM for food purchases offered by the Andover Congregational Church, and for open-mic sign-ins on a first-come, first-serve basis.

Information about future dates and scheduled performers, and a photographic record of past performers, both headliners and open-mic participants, are shown on the Coffeehouse Web site at AndoverCoffeehouse.org or on the Facebook page "Andover Community Coffeehouse."
