

her love for the sea.

Sarah graduated from Williston Northampton School in Easthampton, MA ('72) where she was the first woman to sail on the varsity sailing team and receive a varsity letter. She then studied English and Business at Elmira College, Elmira, NY ('76). After college, Sarah worked for Foster Dykema Cabot in Boston. She was married in 1978 and in 1979 moved to New London, NH for a brief time before making her home in Wilmot, NH. Sarah worked at New London Trust Co., her first introduction to the close-knit Lake Sunapee Region.

Sarah was a devoted mother, and instilled a sense of community within her family. With her husband Michael, she owned and operated Gourmet Garden in New London, NH for 30 years. Throughout her career Sarah dedicated her professional life to passionately supporting New Hampshire's artisans and businesses. In an on-going effort to support the community, Sarah created a line of ornaments with proceeds going to regional non-profits and community organizations. She was an active member of the Lake Sunapee Area Chamber of Commerce for 29 years, and she and Michael were active members of the Parents Association and Board of Trustees at Proctor Academy in Andover, NH. Along with her love for her family and entrepreneurship, Sarah enjoyed traveling, spending time on the coast in Southport, ME, caring for her dogs, and rooting for her beloved Red Sox.

Sarah is predeceased by her parents and is survived by her husband of 40 years, Michael G. Cave of Wilmot, NH; two sons, Parker Cave of Boston, MA and Chris Cave of Beverly, MA; a sister and her husband, Meg and Jon Rand of Laconia, NH and their children, Jennifer and Charlie; a sister, Lisa Parker of Marblehead, MA; a brother and his wife, Joe and Libby Parker of Marblehead, MA and their sons, Sam and Will; an aunt Nancy P. Parker; an uncle Donald Falvey Jr.; and many beloved cousins.

A memorial service will be held at The First Baptist Church in New London, NH on Saturday, June 2nd at 11 AM (461 Main Street, New London, NH 03257)

In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions may be made to Norris Cotton Cancer Center, One Medical Center Drive, Lebanon, NH 03756.

PETER M. BRODEUR, of Andover died of a heart attack while driving home on Sunday, May 20, 2018. Born in Concord on Aug. 7, 1959, he grew up in Penacook.

In the past he had worked at the Mt. Kearsarge Indian Museum as one of their most popular tour guides. Here he acquired his love of Native American culture that led to his start as a storyteller. As a storyteller he was well known in New England. He was a member of Central New Hampshire Storytelling Guild, co-founder of New Hampshire Storytelling Alliance and on their board of directors. He was also a member of New England Storytellers, formerly LANES, and past North East District Representative for the National Storytelling Network. He enjoyed the International Storytelling Festival at Jonesborough, Tenn. for many years.

He was a long time employee of Presidential Oaks in Concord, where he worked in their Activities Dept. His ease with people of all ages and his eagerness to make new friends was evident from an early age. As a child he was always the first to find playmates wherever the family stopped to camp on summer vacations.

Peter is survived by his siblings, David Brodeur of Olympia Wash., Aimee Johnson and her husband, Don of New Lebanon, N.Y., Judith Brodeur of Hill and Mark Brodeur of Boscawen; as well as his life long friend "True" Rickler of Andover. A nephew, Kyle Johnson and niece, Aria Brodeur, and his many friends in the storytelling community.

Several tributes were planned for Peter; including, Tea and Tales Tuesday, May 29, from 7 to 9 p.m. at the Franklin Studios, 362 Central St., Franklin. The Corner House Inn in Center Sandwich dedicated their 30th Dinner and Storytelling season ending gala to Peter on Thursday, May 31. Presidential Oaks is planning their own memorial for residents and staff.

A memorial service will be held Sunday, June 3 from 2 to 4 p.m. at New Covenant Christian Church, 31 Lindsay Court, Laconia.

Chadwick Funeral and Cremation Service

Don't keep it a secret!

If you have had the good sense to preplan please tell your family and relatives. Let them know what your wishes are. Talk to them ahead of time. Make sure they know where your important papers are located and who to contact to help with different aspects of your estate. Leave a few items undone so that the family can feel part of the process.

Please tell your friends that you have pre-planned and let them know how easy and painless it is. Please give Charlie, Marion or Dan a call or email us to begin the pre-planning process. It isn't difficult, one session and then cross it off the list. Meet with us at the funeral home or in the comfort of your own home.
