He and Gail drove 5,103 miles to Houston and back to attend their grandson's first birthday "What a grand tour ... over three and a half weeks!" It cost approximately $240 to charge the car throughout the whole trip. Photo: Gail Beaufays

On Maundy Thursday, April 14, the Andover Community Church surprised the youngsters at the East Andover Village Preschool with an Easter Egg Hunt.

May is here! Warmer weather is so welcome. Even we are being blessed with flowers coming up.

Palm Sunday was a wonderful day of praise, worship, and "Hosannas." At the second service, we began in the parking lot and walked into the church, raising our palms and singing. Truly, what a glorious way to start the service!

Later that week, on Maundy Thursday, the EAVP kiddos were surprised with an Easter Egg Hunt gifted by the church. All the children really enjoyed this surprise. (Not sure who enjoyed it more, the children or the adults.)

Easter began with a beautiful time See Church on page 18
